

ANIMAL HEALTH CARE CENTER

NEWSLETTER

November 1st, 2024

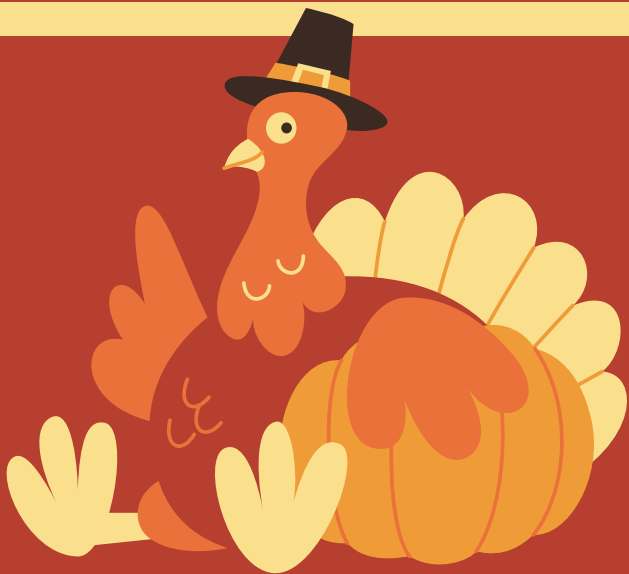

Keep Your Pets Healthy This Holiday Season!

The holidays are a time for celebration, but they can also bring hidden dangers for our furry friends. Click below to check out our latest article on pancreatitis in dogs and common toxic foods for pets. Learn how to keep your pets safe and healthy while enjoying the festivities!

Your pet deserves a joyful and safe holiday—let's make it happen!

Understanding Canine Pancreatitis

Common Foods that are Toxic to Dogs

Happy Fall!

As temperatures drop in North Alabama, many pet owners think it's time to pause flea, tick, and heartworm prevention. But the truth is, these pests can thrive all year long! Our latest article dives into why year-round prevention is crucial for keeping your furry friends safe and healthy, even in the cooler months.

Don't take chances with your pet's health—click below to learn more!

The Importance of Year Round Flea, Tick, and Heartworm Prevention

Holiday Hours

Thanksgiving

November 28th - CLOSED for Thanksgiving

November 29th - OPEN regular business hours

Christmas

December 24th - OPEN 7:00 - 12:00 for Christmas Eve

December 25th - CLOSED for Christmas Day

New Years

December 31st - OPEN 7:00 - 12:00 for New Years Eve

January 1st - CLOSED for New Years Day